Kwara, Nigeria

A First-class Bachelor's degree holder in Accounting with a knack for professional advancement and an interest in Financial modelling and analysis. My 2 years+ experience in college level leadership roles, self-driven professional development and volunteering activities have primed me for a Graduate-Entry level role where I can continuously improve my problem-solving ability, hone effective leadership and communication skills and contribute significantly to organisational goals. I am open to learning and looking to join a team of result-oriented young professionals.
